

By agreeing to become a member of the Australasian Numismatic Dealers Association Inc. you are agreeing to accept and follow the following Code of Ethics.

That you will ....

Promote, develop, and maintain a high standard of moral ethics in all my business dealings.

By deed and example, endeavour to promote mutual trust and friendship between Members of the Association and between Members and the public.

Avoid misrepresentation and misleading advertising.

Purchase numismatic and/or philatelic items from the public at reasonable prices with due allowance for prevailing market conditions.

Advise my clientele in all collectables matters to the best of my ability.

Refrain from dealing in stolen and counterfeit material and give buyers of repaired or altered material a complete written statement showing in detail the nature of the changes and alterations in such material upon request.

Immediately refund on any item sold by me where the description was either inaccurate or misleading, within a reasonable period of time after the transaction.

In the event of any dispute arising between any customer and myself or with any other Member of the Association agree to abide by any ruling in connection with such dispute as shall be given by the Executive Committee for the time being of the Association.

Refrain from criticising fellow Member dealers or their stocks to collectors and purchasers.

Accurately grade merchandise, giving cognisance to the fact that grading is subjective and a matter of personal opinion, yet utilize recognized industry guidelines.

Support and be subject to the Constitution and By-Laws of the Australasian Numismatic Dealers Association Inc. and such amendments, resolutions and policies as may be established.
